CABA hosts networking night

BALA CYNWYD – More than 35 members of the City Avenue Business Alliance (CABA) met for an evening of networking on Wednesday, April 28, in the City Avenue Hilton. Representatives from many of the City Avenue District's businesses were there, including St. Joseph's University, the Hilton, the Crowne Plaza, Avril BYOB and more. The business-networking arm of the City Avenue Special Services District, CABA is a beneficial group for the area, bringing business leaders together. The City Avenue Special Services District is a collaboration between the City of Philadelphia and the Township of Lower Merion to enhance the public and private sectors of the region extending west on City Avenue from the Schuylkill Expressway to 63rd Street and Wynnewood Road. From the creation of public-safety initiatives to new strategies for development, the CityAve Special Services District is the go-to organization for any individual or business interested in becoming a part of what this exciting region has to offer. For more information about the District, please call 610-747-0311 or visit www.cityave.org. At the event were (from left, above) Rosetta Conigliaro, Mike Troped, Chef Christian Gatti and Tonya Green and (below) Andrew Strain, Vilija Vilamas, Brett Sheppard, Tara Stepanitis and Jeff Barnes.
