IN BUSINESS

City Avenue business leaders meet

On Thursday, Nov. 19, members of the City Avenue Business Alliance (CABA) gathered to network at Katz's Deli Kitchen in the newly renovated 225 City Avenue Building. The business-networking arm of the City Avenue Special Services District, CABA is a beneficial group for the area, bringing business leaders together. CABA, Keystone Property Group and the new restaurant were the hosts.

Also at the event are (from left) Lower Merion Township Commissioner Brian Gordon, Ray Gutowski of Narberth and Don DiJulio of St. Joseph's University. The City Avenue Special Services District is a collaboration between the City of Philadelphia and the Township of Lower Merion to enhance the public and private sectors of the region extending west on City Avenue from the Schuylkill Expressway to 63rd Street and Wynnewood Road. From the creation of public-safety initiatives to new strategies for development, the CityAve Special Services District is the go-to organization for any person or business interested in becoming a part of what this exciting region has to offer. For more information about the district please call 610-747-0311 or visit www.cityave.org.
