

Main Line Life

November 12, 2008

Local News

Main Line Life photo — PETE BANNAN

Since its inception in 1999, the City Avenue District that borders Lower Merion and Philadelphia has made improving public safety a top priority. One of the latest improvements was having Community Service Representatives use Segways to patrol the area. George Caben is one of the CSRs that can now get places quicker thanks to the Segway.